

Advanced English Language Course

Theme

English is frequently used by almost all humanitarian and social workers; however most of the staff possesses difficulties in writing effectively. This course intends to improve the writing skills of the participants.

Desired participants

Those who can speak English; hence have difficulties in effective and grammatical writing.

Expected Outcomes

This course will facilitate the participants in understanding:

- The subject
- The predicate
- Compound subjects
- Kinds of sentences by their functions
- Sentence structures
- Types of sentences by their number and type of clauses
- Definitions, functions and forms of Verbs
- Nouns and their functions
- Pronouns
- Adjectives
- Adverbs
- Prepositions
- Conjunctions
- Phrases
- The Clause
- Agreement
- Case
- Tenses
- Active & Passive voice
- Direct & Indirect
- Punctuation

Advanced
English
Language
Course

Institutional Capacity Building Program
SUKOON
House 365, Street 1, Makki Mohallah, Kahal
GPO Box 111, Abbottabad, Pakistan
www.thesukoon.org

- Spelling
- Pronunciation
- Vocabulary

Duration

30 days in 4 months – two days a week – 3 hours a day

Cost

Rs. 7000 per participant that includes:

- Course Manual and required stationery
- Compact Computer Disk
- Certificate of participation